

With the Strategic and Operational Plans in place, our next steps are launching a PR campaign, seeking support and volunteers at a more comprehensive level, and also seeking donations and contributions from various entities. In addition, we intend to have a press conference and we have initiated discussions for collaboration with International Day of Justice Movement, Association of Cities and the Parliament.